This book is intended for people that have experienced one or more of these things, those that are ready for a quick introduction to what they're about to experience! Each chapter will include descriptions of the trip, and tips the reader/listener could take to help them continue. As the book progresses, some tips, hints, and examples will be provided, as well, which will help you get going when you want it, not just when you can't. An early morning crash on I-65 in northern Harris County left a woman dead. The crash occurred just before 11:30 a.m. on Sunday at the intersection of Interstate 35 and I-35W at the junction of northbound Texas Highway 55 and the Harris County Tollway. "I was just driving by my house and I heard a boom so I just kept going northbound and my car was on the back path when I was turning into westbound," Brian Leach, told KPRC2's Dave Cappell. The westbound lanes were blocked off. The woman was identified as 29-year-old Lauren E. Lee. Harris County EMS spokeswoman Michelle Richardson says she heard the crash from behind her. Lee went to the hospital but died as a result of her injuries. She died of non-life-threatening injuries. The collision appeared to be the latest fatal crash on. For many years, these alleged crimes involved the defendants providing the drugs via mail order sales, including the manufacture of Oxycontin and other opioids, to U.S. citizens and lawful residents living in New York, New Jersey, and California through fraudulent invoices that falsely purported that the medications were intended for their patients only. Each of the defendants agreed to plead guilty to the charges in the hopes of avoiding lengthy prison sentences and the cost, time, and suffering to the individuals involved due to their conviction..
